ARTICLE 46. IMPASSE PROCEDURES

Section 1. Mediation. The parties will make a meaningful effort to settle matters arising for negotiations through the bargaining process and will only resort to subsequent third party neutral proceedings after they exhausted all avenues of mutual agreement available to them. If an impasse in negotiations results after full and complete negotiations, either party or both parties may request the services of a mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Section 2. The mediator shall have no authority other than to attempt to help the parties to arrive at a mutually agreeable settlement. The mediator shall be responsible for determining whether or not the parties have indeed arrived at an impasse in bargaining. If the mediator has any reason to believe the parties are not at a true impasse in bargaining, he or she shall have the responsibility to remand the parties to further negotiations in an attempt to resolve the differences between them. If the mediator is convinced that the parties have arrived at a bona fide impasse in negotiations, he shall certify such fact to these parties who then have the following options open to them.

Section 3. Fact-finding. If after mediation, settlement has not been reached between the parties concerning negotiable issues which were subject to mediation, then either party may by written notification to the other request the remaining unresolved matters be submitted to a fact-finding panel.

Section 4. The fact-finding panel shall only be presented with unresolved issues which were subject to the mediation process. Within five (5) days of receipt of the written request for fact-finding, the parties shall request a list of seven (7) qualified neutrals who shall be active members of the National Academy of Arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Each party shall alternately strike three (3) names from the list. The parties shall determine who shall strike first by a coin toss. The remaining individuals shall be designated the fact-finder. The Employer shall be responsible for appointing an additional fact-finder to represent its interests and the Association shall be responsible for appointing an additional fact-finder to represent its interests. The three fact-finders shall then constitute the fact-finding panel.

Section 5. The parties shall exchange written final offers on each remaining unresolved issue no later than ten (10) calendar days before the date of the fact-finding hearing. The fact-finding panel shall be served a written copy of each party's final offer on each outstanding unresolved bargaining matter within five (5) calendar days before the date of hearing.

Section 6. The fact-finding panel shall only have jurisdiction to consider issues involving mandatory items of negotiations.

Section 7. The fact-finders shall establish dates and places of hearings. The hearing shall be closed to the public. The fact-finders shall afford all parties full opportunity to examine and cross-examine all witnesses and to present evidence pertinent to the dispute including briefs in support of their respective cases.

Section 8. The fact-finders shall conduct the hearings and render their decision with the objective of achieving a prompt, peaceful and just settlement of disputes. The factors which must be given weight by the fact-finders in arriving at a recommended decision shall be:

- A. comparison of total compensation of police officers in cities of a comparable nature;
- B. relevant cost of living information;
- C. overall compensation and fringe benefits presently received by employees involved, and the interest and welfare of the public including financial liability;
- D. fiscal responsibility of the City; and economic and non-economic impact of the various offers upon present or future levels of service or programs provided by the City to its citizens and other City employees;
- E. the hazards of employment; physical, educational and mental qualifications; and job training and skills required of Brownsville police officers.

Section 9. The fact-finders shall consider each argument and all evidence presented by the parties and addresses them in well-reasoned, professionally written findings of fact and recommendations to resolve the dispute. The written decision shall be served on both parties not more than thirty (30) days from the conclusion of the hearings or submission of briefs whichever occurs later.

Section 10. Within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the findings of fact and recommendations, each party shall notify the other in writing whether they accept any of the recommendations of the fact-finders. If the parties do not accept the recommendations of the fact-finders, they shall attempt to settle the dispute. If no settlement has been reached after thirty (30) days from receipt of the notice by either party rejecting the recommendations, then the fact-finders' findings of fact and recommendations shall be published by either party.

Section 11. Within three (3) days after the findings of fact and recommendations are published, the party rejecting the recommendation shall publicize through a detailed written document each reason for rejecting the recommendation of the fact-finding panel.

Section 12. All costs of fact-finding shall be borne equally by the parties involved in the dispute, except costs for the parties' respective representatives and witnesses.

Section 13. If, within ten (10) days after the recommendations have been made public the parties have not agreed to a contract, unresolved issues shall, at the request of either party, be submitted to a referendum election according to the following procedures which shall be binding on the parties:

- A. the election shall be held on the first date permissible under state law;

B. party rejecting fact-finders' recommendation shall pay three-fourths (3/4) of the cost of the referendum. If both parties reject any recommendations, each shall pay one-half (1/2) of the cost;

C. each party shall be entitled to submit two and only two unsettled issues to the voters. The existing contract shall, therefore, be changed only by the outcome of the referendum issues and prior agreements reached by the parties.
